“ Ed,

I considered him my grandfather, not only because he married my grandmother, but I cared a lot for him. I'll miss him always, but I'll always remember the good times that we shared. Like in the past year, we went to a gator farm in SC; I won't forget it, especially, because we saw the world's largest crocodile. It was so much fun, I only wish I had more time to spend with him. Hopefully, God has taken Ed into his hands up there in Heaven. May he rest in peace.

“ Ed was a great guy. Ed made sure that everybody around him was comfortable. Whether making sure your drink was fresh or just there being your buddy, his generosity and optimism was a great part of who he was. We're very sorry for your loss and our thoughts are with you.

*Josie,
Ed filled my heart with love and laughter. The gleam in his eyes shined on all of us. I will miss him terribly. The only comfort I have is knowing he's still with us by us telling one of his ridiculous stories, laughing at one of his funny jokes and sharing his gift of being the perfect friend with others.*

I love you and am here for you. Love, Karen
