Ed was a long time member of AA in Murrells Inlet/Pawleys Island where he touched many lives by loving, leading, and challenging men and women to live a life free from addictions and hang ups. Ed was greatly blessed by the fellowship, teaching, and inspiration at Pawleys Island Presbyterian Church where he and Cynthia have been members for many years.

Ed loved his family and was the husband, father, big brother, eldest son, son in law, and grandfather that inspired everyone to love each other, to love others, and to treat everyone with respect and honor. In addition, he loved fishing and boating, traveling in his Travel Trailer with his wife and his beloved rescue dog Barney, and spending time with his children and grandkids.

“ My former father-in-law and I didn't discuss politics because of our differing views. But, years ago, when Senator Jesse Helms was running for re-election and had a good chance of being beaten by Charlotte Mayor Harvey Gantt, I was sitting with Ted watching the news on TV when he suddenly exclaimed "That Jesse Helms is the biggest horse's ___ ___ ___." Shocked, I started to asked him "Does that mean...?" And he quickly replied, "But I could never vote for a Democrat." That was Ted. I'll miss him.
