“ Eddie,

I was so blessed to have met you. You came into my life at a time when I needed someone most. And even years later you were there to pull me through a rough time. I will cherish the wonderful time you showed me in Myrtle Beach.

You are a very special soul and you will always have a special place in my heart. You were my first love & a great friend. I will treasure my memories of you.

Say Hi to my Daddy & Grandpa in heaven. Look out for 'Nono', he may be waiting to cut your hair!

A pink candle for prom night.....Hugs & kisses

My deepest sympathies to your family.

“ My Eddie,

You were our world, you came into mine, Eric and Ashley's lives 15 years ago and brought us so many smiles and happiness, something that we thought would never happen again. You were the DADDY to my kids in every sense of the word. You made their childhood so wonderful, I loved the way you were like a child yourself with them when we took them places and did things together, and the way you would always help with their homework. I remember when we took a trip to the Mtns and our dog Ivan took off running like he was on flat land and he fell off the side of the mountain and you saved him by pulling him back up by his leash, and you said he wasn't used to the mountains and he thought he was on flat land, we laughed so hard. You were a great Pa Pa to Jordan, and he loved his Pa Pa so much. And the years you and I spend together so in love, all our hopes and dreams and sharing secrets, and making plans for our future, and talking about what we were going to do when we got older, traveling, rocking on the porch, holding hands. You had the biggest heart of any person I have ever met, or will ever meet. Always giving your heart to everyone you came in contact with. You taught me to be strong, and to always stand up for myself and for what I believed in, You were my rock, my strong shoulders to cry on and to hold me tight when I was upset or hurting. I need them now! You were the love of my life. There will be no other. I know God is letting you watch over us and I know you are at peace now. Until we can be together again my heart belongs to Eddie. I LOVE YOU!

Always & Forever,

Bj Stevens

“ I knew Eddie for many years, he lived with me and my husband for quite a long time and was like a 2nd dad to my first daughter Desiree. We had lost touch for some years and had just gotten in touch again this year. I am so thankful we had the chance to speak again! Eddie was a wonderful human being and he will be greatly missed by me and my family. We love you Ed, see you on the other side my friend. All our love and prayers to the family.

“ Ed and I were good friends from grammar school in Newark. I was deeply saddened over the news of his passing. As a matter of fact I still do not like talking about it.

Ed, I considered you like a brother. over the years we shared alot of Laughter and sorrow. You will truly be missed. Till we meet again my old friend.

“ Ed and I were in English class in high school, had the same friends and all. I don't remember speaking to him much back in the day, but I got to know him a little bit more through facebook. Just glad that I was able to give him a happy lunch hour with his buddy Vinny playing with army parachute men. Rest in peace Ed, your with God now.

I knew Ed and his brother when me and Jo Jo a very dear and close friend of theirs and someone I will always love and cherish would all hang out under Niagara Street Bridge. I know since Jo Jo passed away, no ones lives has been the same. Ed go be with Jo Jo and Terry now and know you're finally free of all the pain you held inside of your heart. I will keep you in my prayers till we meet again.

“ You taught me so much and raised me. You were a father to me and I look up to you. Thanks for giving me so many memories with you, good and bad. I wished we wouldn't have grown apart. Reality hit me when I saw this online. I try to trick myself into not believing this isn't true. I regret that I never had the chance to say goodbye and to tell you that I love you one last time. I will never forget you and I will keep all of the memories close to my heart. I love you Ed. More than you ever knew.

“ I knew Eddy half a lifetime ago. He was my bestfriend. I just got in touch with him again a few months ago. I still had so much to say to him. There always has been and always will be a piece of my heart that belongs to you, "word." I'm so sorry I allowed so much time to go by. To his family, I'm so sorry for your loss!!
