“ Carter and I first met in 1966 at Osan AB, Korea while stationed in the USAF. Carter was NCOIC of the Base Chaplain's Office and I worked in the Wing Headquarters as an Administrator. We immediately became good and fast friends for we shared so many likes and dislikes. The most important in our sharing was that of 'Music.' Under Carter's steady lead we formed an all men's choir known as the Country Church Choir and performed for many official occasions as well as on AFN Radio. In order to make the months pass quickly we got involved in many activities ie, bowling, playing bridge, visiting orphanages, and traveling to different countries whenever we had the opportunity. I especially remember our trip to Tokyo with a group of friends. While there we visited the Sony Building. Up on the 2nd floor was a beautiful foyer with a cordoned off area where stood a magnificent four manual organ and a sign next to it "Do Not Play This Organ!" Well, with a little coaxing from the group Carter jumped over the rope, positioned himself at this mighty organ console and proceeded to play magnificently until a rather disturbed looking official approached the area and asked Carter to stop playing. By this time there had gathered a considerable crowd of listeners. Carter finished the piece with great aplomb, turned to the official and said I'm sorry about that. The crowd immediatly bust in to thunderous applause and bravos. What can I say, that was simply Carter - God Love Him and I'm sure he is already playing for him. We have remained friends over the many years, appearing in concert together in Conway, visiting one another with family, trips to Branson where we were house guests of the Breezes, and always the E-Mails. He will be sadly missed by all those that knew and loved him and we are so thankful for all the wonderful times our famlies shared together and he will always be in our thoughts and prayers. To dearest Pat, Mark, Scott, and Sidney we send our love, hugs, and kisses and above all our deepest sympathy. Ted and Lore Cook###imported-begin##Ted and Lore Cook###imported-end##

“ Mrs. Breeze..Please accept my sincerest condolences on the loss of your husband Carter. Although I knew him only in passing, I greatly admired his talent and his willingness to "make a joyful noise unto the Lord." I can only imagine the wonderful music he's playing now in Heaven, and I look forward to again hearing him play the organ some day in the next life. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Billie Ann Booth##imported-end##

“ Pat, You and your family are in our prayers. I have sang in the Trinity Choir for over four years now and have known both you and Carter's wonderful magic he can make with his music. I can still hear him playing in my mind and heart. He is playing beautiful music for our Father and his choir now and they are fortunate to have him. He is missed, but he will always be with us whenever we sing or make beautiful music in the name of our Lord. Love to you and yours.##imported-begin##Kathleen Hammersla##imported-end##

“ Pat, We share in the loss of your beloved husband. He was one of the most talented men we have ever known. More especially, he made such an important impact on the childhood of my brother, Charles Lewis. I remember Charles talking about him all the time. I really believe that Carter was a "Father" role model to him. And later on, before I left DSS, I had the pleasure of working with him on the Foster Care Review Board. He was really dedicated to making recommendations that were in the best interests of the children, their biological parents and their foster parents. He was truly an inspiration to everyone who knew him. We share in your grief, but rejoice in the fact that he has given so much to so many and will always be remembered with love and appreciation. “ Most of my contact with Carter involved my children Tara and Ashley Bruton and their various choirs. He made music fun for them as they grew up in the church. I was so glad I could call on him when Sean Crump, Ashley's best friend, died suddenly. I don't know what Carter said to Ashley and his friends, but it made a great difference. Thank you, Carter and love from all of us. Rest in peace!###imported-begin###Glenda Sweet###imported-end##

“ Dear Mrs. Breeze, I was so sad when my mom told me about Mr. Breeze. He was so wonderful and made everyone feel really special. I learned so much from him. He always filled the church with the most beautiful music each week, and inspired me to be a part of it. He was involved in many of my fondest memories. I'll always remember when he used to take us to Dairy Queen after choir practice. I'll never forget how much fun our brass quartet had together with him. His enthusiasm and happiness was always so evident. You could hear him whistling from the other side of the church. The example that he set truly helped to shape the person that I am today. Everyone will miss him dearly. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. Love, Keith Wood###imported-begin###Keith Wood###imported-end###

“ Mrs. Breeze and Family, I was sorry to hear of the passing of Mr. Breeze. Every time I talked to him or saw him talking to others he was pleasant and upbeat and seemed genuinely interested in you and what you had to say. I have fond memories of singing in the choir many years ago and learning some about the handbells under his direction. It is such a shame that he left us at only 74 because unlike so many others he was someone who had so much to give and so many talents to share. I know you must've heard it 1000 times, but he really will be sorely missed by many, many persons. Again, I am sorry for your loss. God bless.--Wyman###imported-begin###Wyman Rembert###imported-end###

“ Mrs. Breeze and Family, I am truly sorry to hear about Mr. Breeze, and wish that I could be there in person to offer my condolences. He was such a wonderful person and I have many, many fond memories of him throughout my life. It seems like only yesterday that all of us kids were marching around the choir room with our instruments singing "Do Lord, oh do Lord, oh do you 'member me?" I know that the Lord knows Mr. Breeze and has a special place in Heaven for him. He already has a special place in alot of kids hearts for the same reason he has one in mine. He was a wonderful teacher and a true family friend. He will be missed. Please know that my thoughts are with you all. “ Carter was a special gift from God to this world. He was such a gifted musician and a wonderful Christian man. I am so thankful for all the sweet memories of him that I have gathered since childhood. I found in him more than just a cousin - he was a real friend who gave much love and understanding. I will certainly miss him, but I know that he is at home in Heaven and enjoying all the family that had gone on before. I find comfort in thinking that he and my dear brother have already blessed Heaven with a concert. To you Pat, and the kids and their families, may God bless you with the very best that He has for you in the years ahead.##imported-begin##Bill Allen Carter##imported-end##

“ Remembering Carter as a person in whose presence one felt comfortable, accepted and loved much like the image we hold of Jesus. He surel did not hide his talents under a bushel and he did let his Light Shine. I am but one of thousands who will miss him. My heart is with your family in the Spirit of Love. Carter has experienced the miracle of eternal life as will we. JOHN: 3:16, 5:24, 11:23. That which brings such saddness is that which has once brought great joy. CHERISH ALL THAT WAS YOURS !##imported-begin##Julie Carter##imported-end##
