

Edwin "Ed" Clifford Zahler Sr.

October 20, 1937 - May 22, 2024

Edwin "Ed" Clifford Zahler Sr., 86,

passed away in his garden on May 22, 2024 in Conway, South Carolina. He was born on October 20, 1937 in Yemassee, South Carolina. He was a lifelong gardener and educator. Survivors include his husband Duane Therrien, his children Edwin Clifford Zahler Jr., Lori Zahler Barker and their spouses, four grandchildren Grant, Weber, Megan and Zade and three great-grandchildren Logan, Kyler and Ziva. He was preceded in death by his parents, grandparents, sisters and wife Linda B. Zahler. Ed was a proud graduate of Clemson University, he went on to become the Department Head of the Golf Course Management which he founded at Horry Georgetown Technical College. He remained an instructor there for 36 years and was nationally recognized. Students came from all over the world to attend his program. Ed loved Daylilies and hybridized them for over 40 years. His award winning Daylilies are in 5 other countries and all over the United States. In 2018, he hosted the National Daylily Convention sponsored by the Georgetown County Daylily Club. His contribution to the Daylily world will be remembered for years to come. A time of gathering will be held Sunday June 2nd at 11 am, followed by a 12pm service at Goldfinch Funeral Home in Conway, South Carolina.
