“ Eileen was the very essence of what it means to be a friend. For almost 18 years I counted on her smile, her encouragement, her faith, her prayer, her patience, her loyalty, her sense of fun and humor, her generosity, as did a legion of other people at St. James and beyond. I thank God for the blessing of being her pastor and her friend. Love always, Father 'Rick

“ Eileen was a treasure. She always had a smile on her face and brought sunshine to the room when she entered. Although I only had a passing acquaintance relationship with Eileen I want you to know that she was a good friend to my parents and they looked forward to her visits while they were ill. She was a good friend to them.

*She will be missed at St James and in our Myrtle Trace Community.
