“ Eileen was a very close friend of mine. We prayed together about many things and situations. Eileen was a very brave person. She was always looking and reaching out for something that made life better. She and I shared bible verses and what we learned at bible study. She had joined a bible study group and she was so uplifted about that and how much she had learned. I met Eileen at Hofstra Law School where I was working when she became employed at Hofstra. We lunched together with another friend, Joyce Cox. We talked about our children and grand children. She loved her son Kevin and daughter Janine and all of her grands. I never got the chance to visit her since she left NY, but we stayed in touch by phone and cards. I can say: Eileen, I know you are an angel in heaven. I will always remember you and love you.
Your friend forever, Mary Fair, Hofstra Law School.

“ My dear friend Eileen, as soon as we met we became friends, sisters, dancing partners. We were lucky winning bingo and sharing the prize. We had so much fun at the Villa Roma Resort, together with your sister Patricia. Then, when we retired we found each other again in Myrtle Beach and became neighbors. The party began each time we got together. We will miss you my dear friend. We will keep you in our hearts forever. Farewell, until we'll meet again.
