

Elaine C Moran

September 20, 1946 - March 10, 2023

Elaine C. Moran age 76, passed away on March 10, 2023, in Myrtle Beach, SC.

Born on September 20, 1946, in Haverhill, MA, she was a daughter of the late James and Germaine Bedia. Elaine spent the last 10 years living a quiet life in the Surfside Beach area, caring for her late mother, and enjoying the opportunity to live closer to her brother.

Elaine was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, daughter, sister, aunt, cousin, and friend. She had a heart for giving and always prioritized caring for her loved ones.

Elaine and Raimond Moran were married in 1967 and resided in Long Beach, NY for their time together here on Earth. They loved their routine, local eateries, and traveling to their favorite places, upstate New York, and Aruba. They were well-known and well-liked in their community and spent a lifetime making memories with family and lifelong friends. Both Elaine and her husband dedicated many years to the Long Island Railroad as they built their beautiful life together. Elaine was preceded in death by her husband, Raimond Moran.

She is survived by her brother, Ronald (Sandy) Bedia; her son, Raimond

(Kim) Moran; her grandchildren, Raimond (Lauren) Moran Jr. and Trisha (Jeremy) St Croix; and her great grandchildren, Liahna Elaine, Raimond Michael III, and Deonte.

Elaine loved gardening, the beach, animals, going to the beauty parlor, watching movies, cooking, spending time with loved ones, and contributing to charities. She was a faithful catholic and trusted in eternal life. She will be deeply missed.

Services will be held at a later date in Long Beach, NY at St Mary of the Isle Roman Catholic Church. Inurnment to follow at Cemetery of the Holy Rood.
