

Mrs. Eleanor Jane Owen

October 24, 1920 - February 7, 2017

Conway... Eleanor Jane Owen, age 96, passed away Tuesday, February 07, 2017 at her residence.

Mrs. Owen was born in the Township of Medo, Minnesota, a daughter of the late Casper and Anna Quam. She was preceded in death by her husband, Ray Leonard Owen after seventy years of marriage.

Surviving are her son, Charles R. and his wife Josephine C. Owen of Conway; four grandchildren, Stacy R. Johnson of Westminster, MD., Gilbert M. Rouzer of Owings Mills, MD., Catherine J. Hackett of Gambrills, MD., and Robert C. Owen of Hanover, PA.; six great-grandchildren, Jacob Johnson of Westminster, MD., Christopher Rouzer of Owings Mills, MD., Anna and Connor Hackett of Gambrills, MD., Justin and Joseph Owen of Hanover, PA.; three great-great-grandchildren; and her sister, Elaine Whynaucht of Rochester, MN.

No local services are planned. Inurnment will take place in Maryland at a future date.

The family has requested no flowers. You may make a donation to your preferred charity in memory of Mrs. Owen.

Goldfinch Funeral Home, Conway Chapel, is serving the family.

Tribute Wall

LU

“ Dear Charles, Jo, Cathy, Bobby and family. Eleanor and Ray were wonderful next door neighbors and we still miss them. May they both rest in peace. Love, Tom & Linda Ulrich

Linda Jo Powell Ulrich - April 22, 2017 at 09:19 AM

RM

“ The things I will always remember are when I went over to visit Eleanor and she would make the coffee and I would bring cake .She made a good cup of coffee. She would talk about Ray and the farm and a lot of other things. I was so lucky to know her and will miss her deeply, I will treasury all these memories. You are know in Heaven with the Lord and Ray.

Rose Mary

Rose Miklitsch - February 09, 2017 at 01:55 PM