

Elise Booth

October 31, 1923 - February 11, 2014

Conway...Elise Hardee Booth left this world to claim her victory on February 11, 2014. Elise was an active Christian whose faith was evident in her daily life and love for others. She was a prayer warrior who knew the power of an earnest prayer.

Gertie Elise Hardee was born on October 31, 1923 to Willie Oliver (W.O.) and Gertie Holmes Hardee. After the death of her mother, Oliver married Mae Causey. She had 12 brothers and sisters. Those surviving her are Hazel Singleton, Vernon Causey (Lois), Jo Stevens, Della Buddin (Bill), a brother-in-law Buster Booth, and a sister-in-law Arlene Hardee.

She married the love of her life, Fulton Evan Booth, on December 18, 1943. They had four children Gail Hunter (Terry), Suzanne Rush (Jodie), Lynne Koon (Irby), and Enoch Booth (Kim). These children blessed their parents with 9 grandchildren: Rick Rush (Angela), Lad Hunter (Lauren), Bevan Hunter (Tina), Melanie Porter (Josh), Jonathan Marlowe (Elizabeth), Casey Miller (Adam), Austin Booth, Andrew Booth, and Hannah Booth; 8 great grandchildren: Dylan Rush, Aubrey and Anna Grace Hunter, Evan, Gibson, and a future Coralee Porter, and Abigail and Maggie Marlowe and two special daughters, Gloria Hardee Verenakas (Johnny) and Fifi Ramirez (Roman). Elise was predeceased by her husband of 52 years Fulton Evan Booth. She is also predeceased by her brothers and sisters: Hezekiah Hardee, George Hardee, Genevieve Lilly, Oliver Hardee, Elbert Causey, Myrtle Dorman, Carl Causey, and Sylvia Booth.

Elise was a graduate of Conway High and Winthrop College. Upon graduation she taught at Conway High School, Homewood Elementary, Whittemore Park Middle, and finally retired from Conway High after a total of 30 years teaching. Elise loved to serve God in any capacity she could. During her life she taught Sunday school, directed the choir, and worked wherever she was needed in the church. In her later years, she was unable to attend church but continued to study her bible daily, pray fervently, and write letters and cards of love and support to those she cherished. She served as an example of love and faithfulness. She was truly a Proverbs 31 lady. Her children arise and call her blessed. Proverbs 31:28.

“ Today we had a wonderful celebration and time of remembering Ms. Elise' life. Everyone that took part did a fantastic job! I'm thankful that the good Lord brought out the sunshine and warmed us up. I've often wondered if He lets the departed take in their service. She would have so enjoyed hers today~ 90 years....a life well lived. What a blessing to so many people. I'm blessed to have known her and was able to call her my friend. Folks say I do pretty good leading the choir. I should, I had a good teacher and example to follow! I look forward to singing with her again one day. Love you all.

“ This was sad to hear. Mrs. Booth was a precious lady. She was my 5th grade teacher at Homewood Elementary School. One of the things that stands out in my mind was, we had to learn all 50 states and capitals. I learned them well. She will be missed by everyone

“ I have thought of both Ms. Booth and Mr. Booth for the last several days. Someone on Facebook mentioned them and I remembered "back when" I was in high school. They both taught me and I loved them both and will always remember them with their smiling faces and smiling hearts.

“ I am so sorry to hear about Ms. Elise. She was the picture of what a true Christian is. Her family is blessed beyond measure having such a dear and sweet Mother, grandmother, and all else. My Mom dearly loved her. What a glorious day in Heaven when she walked through those golden gates! Thoughts and prayers are with you all. Sandra and Blinda

“ "Miss" Elise...my ..my what a flood of wonderful memories....in the Booth household...from the little house on the corner to the spacious home where she and her family have been for many years..... Always good food, good singing, fun games, and serious discussions of life webbed throughout our lives...She has always been a friend and one to respect and honor.....Always loved our time with her in our church activities as well. Our parents spent many Sunday nights in each other's homes.. many laughs, left overs, and lots of singing...Love you and your family. Anita F. Hayes
