

Elizabeth Lewis Barth

January 6, 1965 - January 5, 2021

Elizabeth Lewis Barth passed away peacefully in her sleep January 6, on her 56th birthday.

Liz grew up in Aynor, attended Aynor High School and The University of South Carolina, where she obtained a degree in Elementary Education.

She moved to Houston and met her husband Chris. In 1999 they moved back to Murrells Inlet where they have resided ever since.

Liz is survived by her loving husband and son, Chris and Connor, her sister Leigh Edwards (Ernest & nieces and nephew), her mother and father-in-law, Drs Merle and Patricia Barth, & her brother-in-law, Dr. Bradley Barth (Gillian & nephews & niece). She was preceded in death by her mother, Joyce Lewis and her father, Bill Lewis.

A small service will be held at Belin Methodist church, Saturday January 9 at 4 PM. The service will be held outside by the cross. Attendees are requested to maintain social distancing.

In lieu of flowers, the family would appreciate a gift to the charity of your choice.

Goldfinch Funeral Home Beach Chapel is in charge of the arrangements.

“ Elizabeth and I graduated high school @ Aynor High School in 1983. I didn't see her much after that, until a few years ago. I would often see her shop in my store in North Myrtle Beach where I was a store mgr. Sometimes I would see her with friends and sometimes with her young son. I remember our last conversation as if it was yesterday. This is a tough loss to take for her son, husband, sister, all her family and friends. Thoughts and prayers are with all of you. R.I.P Elizabeth Lewis Barth !

“ I met Elizabeth my freshman year at USC. We became roommates during the remainder of those years. Liz later was a Bridesmaid in my wedding. We had a tremendous amount of fun together. Elizabeth was beautiful, sweet, kind and knew how to enjoy life! This loss is a though one to take. My heart pours for her family and friends. Prayers for you all.
