“ Elizabeth and I became friends when we were ten years old . We shared many memories together . When I got a car it was with me that she perfected the art of riding down the road , widows down and rock and roll blasting on the radio . We were the definition of cool . I will never forget the fun times and I'm looking forward to the day we can listen to the radio again . It is an honor to have been your life long friend . My thoughts and prayers are with your Mom , Your daughters (who by the way are three examples of you) and your grandchildren who I know you were so proud of . Farewell my friend .
