“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as God's word the bible. Why do people we love die? Romans 5:12 says: "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

“ Dear Aunt Betty, Gene, MaryJo, and all of the Eline family: I am so saddened at Lisa's passing. Please accept my heartfelt condolences and prayers for Lisa and all of you.

I have a story about Lisa that I'd like to share. Last March 30, my wife Kathy (Eline), who was Lisa's cousin, passed away from cancer at age 51. Kathy and Lisa were the same age, grew up together in NJ, and spent a lot of time together as teenagers. Last May, after Kathy passed away, at the invitation of Lisa and her mom Betty, I drove down to SC to spend a few days golfing and seeing the beach and local sites. Lisa was an excellent host; we went out for a round of golf, we hit the beach on a very windy and chilly day, we saw some of the local sites, and we all had some great local seafood dinners.

Last March, when Kathy was in hospice care at our home, Lisa wrote Kathy a loving email message, which I pray Lisa would be pleased if I can share it here. I think what she wrote reflects beautifully upon Lisa, and the love that she had inside of her, and that Lisa conveyed to me again when I visited her last year in SC. May God grant Lisa's soul peace and joy in His kingdom.

Kathy and Michael,

First I want to thank you for writing and letting us know who to give more love. For weeks my mother, Betty has shared these messages of faith, hope and strength. All of which has give me the courage to reach out and tell you both just how much I love you.

Kathy, I'll always remember the crazy times we had growing up together, you were always a sister to me. I really had so much fun at the beach, and the times we stayed up all night at each other's houses just talking about goofy stuff. The dances at Paul VI were always fun too!

I will always regret that we lost that connection as we grew older. But we all grow up and make our choices, and you have a beautiful family and deeply devoted husband.

My life is truly blessed! My mother has lived with me for the past 7 years. In November 2012, we moved to a small town near Myrtle Beach. I took off the Texas boots, and said, bye ya'all! I'm going back to the east coast to be with family. Funny you don't realize how important they all are till you "grow up". I have a wonderful son who is in film university in CA. How full of life he is!!! Weren't we at 19? I sure know I was, and still am a piece of work in progress:)

Please know you've been in my heart with each letter Michael has shared. Please know I too will continue to pray for your comfort and peace of mind both for you and your family. I want to reach out and give you a big hug, maybe Michael can do that for me. Carefully though!

*With All My Love, your cousin,
Lisa Eline*

“ It is so sad to lose a mother, child, sister, cousin or friend at such a young age. I remember such fun times with Lisa. Borrowing Pop Pop's boat and racing back from an ocean lightening storm, laughing the whole time, while dock keepers blew their whistles and yelled SLOW Down. But that is not how we lived back then. that was when life was short and we always lived for the moment. We cousins always had to have fun wherever we were. Rest in peace We love you and you are not to be forgotten.

“ I was were very sorry to hear that Lisa had passed away. We attended Podiatry school with her in Philadelphia and I spent a month with her at my externship at Frankford Hospital in PA. I have memories of going to concerts with her and we took a trip down to Virginia to Kings Dominion amusement park. My husband and I offer our condolences to her family. May she rest in peace. “ Even though I cannot see you You're still with me where I walk.
It's better than a photograph
More like a memory that's still warm.
I think of all the promises
And the letters that we've wrote.
The sentences of messages
In bottles washed up on the shore.

*I fill the paper with starfish and shells.
To remind you of what you left behind.
I call the number that sits by the phone
Forgetting you're not there.*

*Dark hair draped wet against her shoulders
Waved washed beauty on the beach
Eyes that light the bright blue sky
Sun soaked princess of the dawn
The infinity that becomes the sea
Cannot match the depth of your soul
But in the end, as thought it never began
We're each left alone to try and imagine*

*I fill the paper with starfish and shells.
To remind you of what you left behind.
I call the number that sits by the phone
Forgetting you're not there.*

*Sunken ships with trunks of treasure
Whirling winds that twirl and toss
Tidal thrusting turns the beach to waves
Wandering whispers wished ashore
Faded footprints lead to forgotten feats
Pale moonlight dims to dawn
Amidst this stands another lonely man
Hoping heaven heals his heart.*

*Words rolling off the paper
Letters drowning out the lines
I write these words like I'd say to you
That I can't get you out of my mind*

*I fill the paper with starfish and shells.
To remind you of what you left behind.
I call the number that sits by the phone
Forgetting you're not there.*

We are a link in the golden chain of love that stretches around the world, we will keep our link bright and strong.

We will be kind and gentle to every living thing and protect all who are weaker than ourselves.

We will think pure and beautiful thoughts, say pure and beautiful words, and do pure and beautiful deeds.

May every link in the golden chain of love be bright and strong, and may we all attain perfect peace.
