ELIZABETH LUNSFORD GRAGG

July 27, 1919 ??? June 26, 2014

ELIZABETH LUNSFORD "LIB" GRAGG was born in Asheville, N.C. on July 27, 1919, and was the daughter of the Rev. Thomas Oakley Lunsford of Weaverville, N.C. and Lula Bradley Lunsford of the Forks of Ivy, N.C. The Rev. Lunsford was co-founder of Hays & Lunsford Electric Motor Company in Asheville, and was pastor of several churches in the Asheville area in the 1940s. Mrs. Gragg was the youngest of four children with one sister and two brothers -- Nelle, Ted and Sid -- and graduated from Grace High School in Asheville in 1936. For almost 62 years, she was married to Lemuel Wallace "Skip" Gragg, a native of Globe, N.C., who was a World War II veteran and the founder of Conway Electric Motor Company in Conway.

Mrs. Gragg loved Jesus Christ as the Lord and her personal savior, and was a charter member of North Conway Baptist Church, where she remained active into her eighties. She was a fulltime homemaker, a Cub Scout den mother, a church youth leader, and was active with family, friends, and many ministry projects, including her favorite -- the North Conway Baptist Church Cradle Roll. She cherished her relationship with the Lord, her family, and her church. She rejoiced in helping others, and was always eager to share the Gospel. She loved spending time with her husband (watching him trout fish and beating him at canasta), laughed a lot, and always shared a joyful spirit. She was consistently good-humored, was very witty, and loved the mountains, traveling, growing flowers, watching birds, cooking and baking, playing the piano and the accordion, listening to Lawrence Welk music, and entertaining her grandchildren at every opportunity.

She was predeceased by her husband in 1998. She is survived by her sons, Ted L. Gragg and Rod Gragg of Conway, daughters-in-law Connie Gragg and Cindy Gragg, nine grandchildren, eleven great-grandchildren, and two nephews, Robert Melton and Charles Lunsford. A visitation for family and friends is scheduled 4-5:30 p.m., Sunday, June 29 at Goldfinch Funeral Home in Conway. A celebration of Mrs. Gragg's life will be held at North Conway Baptist Church at 4 p.m., Monday, June 30.

Those who wish to do so, may make a donation to North Conway Baptist Church or Conway Christian School in lieu of flowers.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as God's word the bible. Why do people we love die? Romans 5:12 says: "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

“ So glad our paths crossed with Lib and her late husband. Their friendship and faith meant so much to us at a time when we were going through some deep waters in our lives. We look forward to meeting them both in our heavenly home. We offer our deepest sympathy to the remaining family. Jane and David Pierce

“ Grandma, I love you. I have fondest childhood memories of family gatherings at the river and playing horseshoes, Easter Egg hunts in your azalea covered backyard after the best homemade macaroni and cheese and the sweetest coconut cake, and swinging from dawn to dusk underneath your giant oaks. Thank you for your love and laughter, Holly
