“ Jeff, Aunt Marvel and Family,

I know there is nothing I can say to ease the pain in your time of loss, but I can send my Love and prayers. It's so difficult letting our loved ones go, but we can always hold on to knowing they live on in our hearts and they now have no more pain, no more suffering and have re joined many precious loved ones that have gone on before. When I think of Libby, I mostly remember the Christmas's at Nanny Tudor's house in WV when all of our kids were small. I remember her always looking so pretty and having on her pretty Christmas clothes and then her beat up tennis shoes. HA! Aunt Marvel was always fussing at her about her worn out shoes...HA! I know that she, Nanny, Poppa Dan, Uncle Budgie, and my David will all have a special family gathering up in Heaven. She might not have on those old beat up tennis shoes, but will be wearing her beautiful angel wings that she so deserves. Love you all!

“Daaaaaaaling,” as we lovingly called each other. I am like a lost kitten without you, I just called your phone so I could hear your voice. I thought I could prepare myself for this day somehow but that would be impossible. My friend, my confidant. All the years we have been together down here on the beach that we both can't get enough of.

I can't believe that I can never press your name and call on my phone everytime I have to tell you something or crack up about something. Laughed so hard about the dog that chased us every night on the golf cart till we about pee'd ourselves. He was gonna get us, wasn't he?

I hope you felt my touch and heard me when you were leaving us. I will never let you go inside my heart. You are one of my best friends and i will miss you everyday :(

“ To my friend that is now an angel with wings, the loss of you is such a deep loss, but I know you will be with your kids and grand babies every day. I think of all our late night laugh sessions on the back porch and your wonderful smile and silliness. You are at peace and lighting up heaven with your smile, you will be missed

“ To the Hayslett Family:

In your sorrow, may there be peace....In your thoughts, may there be love....In your hearts, may there be healing. Psalm 147:3 promises: "He is healing the brokenhearted ones, and is binding up their painful spots."

*My condolences,

“ Dearest Hayslett and Moro Family,
We are so sad for you all as you face one of the most difficult things anyone is called to do, saying farewell to such an amazing mother, grandmother and friend! Please know that you are all being prayed for very diligently from our family to yours! We love you and we will always cherish the old Amway days! We will never forget the times we traveled with you guys! It was always an adventure! Hugs to you all!

Libby,

There were so many precious memories, but the one that is in my heart right now is when you came and prayed for me and rubbed my head when my sweet Savannah went to Jesus 8 years ago! I have thought back on that moment many times and wished I could tell you how much that meant to me! I love you, my friend! Rest easy and love on my baby girl for me! Libby, we will see you soon, our friend!
