

Elizabeth "Betty" Minihane

September 25, 1928 - March 24, 2023

Elizabeth "Betty" Minihane passed away after a short illness on Friday, March 24, 2023, at the age of 94! Betty was born in Scranton, Pennsylvania and moved to New York City at a very early age. She and her family lived in many different apartments in New York. Betty often spoke of the wonderful memories of sleigh riding on Pilgrim Hill and Snake Hill in Central Park and roller skating in Central Park and Riverside Park in NYC. She met her future husband Oliver Minihane in the late 40's and they were married at Holy Trinity Church on February 5th, 1949. They had two daughters in New York and relocated to Wayne, NJ in 1953, where they also had a son.

Betty spent her later career at Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic School in Wayne, NJ as the school Administrative Assistant for just over 25 years. Upon retirement Ollie and Betty moved to Brick, NJ and well after Oliver's death she relocated to Surfside Beach, SC for the last ten years, where she enjoyed many activities and family events with friends in the area.

Betty is survived by her three children, Claire (Leesburg, VA), Pat (Surfside Beach, SC) and Chris (North Myrtle Beach, SC). She had seven grandsons and 12 great grandchildren who all loved her and will miss her dearly. She is pre-deceased by her loving husband Oliver, her parents Theresa and Bill Ferguson and her brothers Billy and Bob Ferguson. Heaven has just gained another angel to reunite with those that we've lost.

In lieu of flowers the family asks that contributions be made to the Tunnel to Towers organization who do such a wonderful job with our returning war veterans.

The family will have a visitation from 11:30am-1:00pm on Thursday, April 13, 2023 at Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel, 11528 Highway 17 Bypass, Murrells Inlet, SC 29576. A Memorial Mass will follow at 1:30 PM at St. Michael Catholic Church.

Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel is honored to serve the Minihane family.
