“ Lieve ome Jaap, Bert, Ann Marie en kinderen, Wij wensen jullie heel veel sterkte toe bij het afscheid nemen van jullie vrouw, moeder, oma en onze tante Lies. De vele fijne herinneringen die jullie aan haar hebben, zullen de brug zijn naar de andere kant, waar zij nu vertoeft, waardoor de band met haar nooit verbroken kan worden. Gelukkig hebben wij haar ook, weliswaar jaren geleden, in levende lijve mogen ontmoeten. Wat hebben we toen een pret met elkaar gehad. Wij zijn in gedachten bij jullie. Dikke knuffel van ons allemaal, Erik en Truus Schenkhuisen-Kleine Jelita en Marcel, Asmar en Kirsten###imported-begin##Schenkhuisen###imported-end##

“ Jack and Family, I was sorry to see Liz's name in the paper. You two have always among my my favorite people at the Elks. I will always remember you both working hard behind the scenes doing a great job and helping everyone and always with a big smile. My prayers will remember Liz as well as you and your family. And my wife Pat would like me to add her condolences too. Things are good with us here, my son is a senior at Seton Hall getting ready to become a teacher, my daughter is a junior in high school.##imported-begin##Jean Sheridan##imported-end##
