Betty dedicated 17 years to ARMDS in Clifton, NJ, retiring as a Senior Manager in medical accounts receivable collection. Outside of work, she was an avid golfer and a lifelong NASCAR fan. A passionate supporter of all Philadelphia sports teams, she especially cherished attending the Phillie's spring training in Clearwater, FL. Above all, Betty loved music, reading, traveling, games and puzzles, crafting, the simple peace of the beach, spending time with her grandchildren, and she had a deep fondness for lighthouses. Known for her quick wit and a wonderfully quirky sense of humor, Betty had the knack for finding the fun in any situation, ensuring that her home was always filled with as much joy as it was with love. Daughter of the late John P. Super and Doris Henderson, she is survived by her loving and devoted husband of 20 years, John Oleshak. She is also survived by her daughters, Stephanie DuPont (Eric) and Christina Cooper; stepdaughters, Jennifer Cannon (Anthony) and Jaime Brisendine (Roy); stepson, John Oleshak, Jr.; and her brother, Charles Super (Beth).
