“ I am saddened to read about Mrs Rossi's passing away today in the paper. I was her optician and truly enjoyed listening to her stories about her late husband and the job she used to do. We had wonderful conversations. One time she brought me some date cake and orange creme. It was delicious. I will truly miss her coming in to see me. She was a true "lady". My sympathies to the family she left behind. May Our Lord Jesus bless the Rossi family with peace and assurance.###imported-begin###Monty Richardson###imported-end##
