

Elizabeth Viergiver Pangman

October 28, 2005

Elizabeth Viergiver Pangman, age 91 of Conway, SC died Thursday October 27, 2005. Born January 20, 1914 in Rochester, NY she was the daughter of the late Walter and Josephine Zimmer Viergiver. She was the wife of the late Hale G. Pangman. Mrs. Pangman was formerly employed by Kodak and had worked in the early development of color film. After retiring, she moved to Myrtle Beach, where she and her husband opened the first Hallmark Card Shop in 1975. She was a talented artist and an avid Golfer. She was a member of Pine Lakes Golf Club and Quail Creek Golf Club. Surviving are one son, Eric Pangman and his wife Gloria Pofahl-Pangman, of Madison, WI; one daughter, Ann Pangman Gilley and her husband Ronnie, of Shallotte, NC; one granddaughter, Haley Ross Pangman of Madison, WI. Graveside services will be 2:00 p.m. Sunday, October 30, 2005 at Hillcrest Cemetery with the Rev. Bert Bosworth officiating. Visitation with the family will follow after the service. Goldfinch Funeral Home, Conway Chapel is in charge of the arrangements.