“ I am so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as the comfort found in God's word the bible. In particular the scripture found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." ”

“ Some of the best times I have had of late were with Elsie over lunch and a glass of wine. Each time I go to Red Lobster I will remember the sweet laughing lady sitting across the table from me. She is going to be missed by many I am sure and I am one of them.

“ Kathleen and Bob, I am so very sorry for your loss. The troubles from the loss of a parent is not one any of us wants to go through. I hope you are comforted by many fond memories of Kathleen's mother. Elsie Salamack had to be a brilliant and delightful lady to have brought into this world her amazing daughter. My deepest sympathy, Mary Crowley
