My heart is so sad at the loss of our beloved Grandma K. There were no words ever to express our gratitude, respect or love for her. Welcome to heaven. Until we meet again

“ Mrs. K had a big heart and a huge smile. She was a loving, caring, hard working mother that would do anything for her family and friends. Her NJ home was a reflection of her, beautiful and welcoming. Walking in the Knodel’s front door she would let you know that you were hungry, if not close to starving and she made it her job to feed you. This was never a problem as her meals were incredible, authentic and filled with love. Many of my favorite memories of her centered around dinner with her family. Mrs K frequently set her large dining room table having it overflow with food and people. Dinner was loud and it was fun; everyone participated. Family and friends would be non-stop chatting, debating, funny stories, fierce discussions, laughing and if a really good night, singing. Everything you would imagine when you think of a close, loving, devoted family.

Mrs K made everyone’s life she touched special and I will miss her.

All my love,

Geri M.

“ We are so sad at the loss of our dear and special friend Emilia. We have such wonderful memories of her back in New Jersey. She had such a kind and loving heart. The times we spent together will never be forgotten, we always felt like she was part of our family. Her smile and kindness will always keep her memory alive for us. Dear Emilia may you rest in peace with the lord, until we meet again. Our prayers and thoughts go out to her family at this sad time. Some day we will all meet again.

All our love Marie, Eddy and family

“ Grandma K will always be missed and never forgotten. Her generosity to everyone. Her love of working outside in her garden. The fact that you ALWAYS were offered a wonderful meal, whether you were hungry or not! She was a great presence in our lives for so many years and no one will ever fill the void she left. Our thoughts and prayers are with her devoted family at this most difficult time and we are glad that you have so many wonderful memories to keep her spirit alive forever.

With all our love, Cindy, Jeff, and Scott (forever known as "the boy")

“ My sister, Caitlin, and I may not have been her grandchildren by blood, but that didn't stop Grandma K from treating us like her own. At time when we needed a family the most, Grandma and Papa K created a home and space for us to be children; created a place in their hearts and lives for two little girls and their mother. The most vivid and precious memories I have of New Jersey, are of Grandma K: playing in the garden, the smell of the scented powder she saved for after our baths, the taste of the fresh soup she made every day, and the sound of her laugh as she played kickball with us in the yard. I remember being so drawn to her energy, to her lightness and eagerness for life. I never felt as free as I did then when running through the sprinklers or helping her rid the flowers of the “puttana” seeds.

Caitlin and I didn't live in Jersey long. Before I started school, we had moved across the country to California, far from the Italian nursery songs, Grandma K's embrace, and the rest of our East Coast family. Yet, despite the distance and the years, Caitlin and I always considered ourselves “Grandma K's girls.” It didn't matter that we didn't share her last name, or live in her neighborhood, Grandma K's love was unconditional, and her spirit enveloped and enlightened everyone around her. Caitlin and I are just so thankful that she was willing to share her love with us, and we are blessed to have shared her with all of you.”
