“ To one of the men that I will always try to emulate. You were one of the kindest and most generous people, to both my self, my brothers and sisters, and my mother that ever lived. You made so much difference in our lives, ones that you may not have realized. We will sorely miss you, and everything that made you the great man that you were. You lived a life that I will always consider as a complete and meaningful life. You were well loved by all, and always rich in your heart. Until we see you again Uncle Emmett, may you rest assured that you left behind a legacy of love and kindness that will live on forever. Thank you. We love you.##imported-begin##Dennis Becker##imported-end##

“ A ship spreads her white sails in the morning breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She is an object of beauty and strength and hangs like a white cloud just where the sea and the sky mingle on the horizon. And as I say "there she goes" ...gone from my sight..She is just as large as in mast and hull as when she was near me and and at the moment someone at my side says "there she goes" there are other voices that take up the shout..."Here....here she comes."###imported-begin###Robin S, Amato###imported-end###
