“ It breaks my heart that i just found this out. Shag was a great person with an amazing spirit. He always believed in helping others and the animals of this world. His heart was so big that he had love for every living person and creature. There is so much i could say here, i could mention his laughter, his smile, his love for music , his quirckiness and his eternal and never judging love for his family and friends. As tears roll, i send my codolences and love to you all. I loved him and will always and forever miss him.
