“ I will never forget Eric. Every time that I paddle out, I think of him and all that he taught me about surfing. It seems like I grew up in his shop. It was a privilege to have know him. ##imported-begin##Richard Ramsay##imported-end##

“ Dearest Charlotte, I am so sorry to hear about Eric. I hadn't seen him since high school, but memories of the times we spent together on the beach are still with me and I am so happy we shared those times. Watching him surf, seeing that golden hair and beautiful smile are the pictures I will keep in my mind and heart. Those years, so long ago, were such a wonderful part of our lives. As years pass and memories fade, I will hold them dear. Please tell all of his loved ones that they are in my thoughts and prayers. My hope for them is that they knew and understood his love of the sea...the sand and surf...sunrises and sunsets. I believe he is there once again...young and handsome...paddling out and looking for the perfect wave...smiling that shy, sweet smile. This memory will live on in the hearts of those that knew him. The sadness will ebb as will the tide. A new dawn breaks, and with it sweet memories of Eric will resurface...a brother, son, father, husband, grandfather, friend and lover of the sea. So very sincerely, Sheron###imported-begin##Sheron Caughman Pope###imported-end##

“ Charlotte: Was saddened to read this morning of Eric's passing and wanted you and the family to know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. I have so many wonderful memories of him from younger days and he was always such a gracious, friendly and genuine human being. I remember his twelve million alpaca sweaters in beautiful colors in high school, Eric on his board at 6am, waiting for that wave. Memories of the Clipper Ship, all of us laughing and talking, making mischief and just glad to be alive. He would have never gotten old, you know, people like Eric would just be forever young. My love to you and the family and my thanks for sharing him with us in life. Elaine Dodson Young##imported-begin##Elaine Dodson Young##imported-end##

“ Dear Charlotte, Remebering Eric in those good 'ol days, watching he and other surfers, he was icon among them at Garden City. Eric was the best of the best, always at the top, winning. Remember it well when excitement reverberated about Eric opening Village Surf Shop...his dream became reality and gave others hope that anything is possible if you believe. Many fond memories of those times and growing-up at the beach, ON the beach, and watching Eric surf back when the real locals ruled. Remember only the good times, the bad will eventually fade... like a rainbow, once beautiful and forever in our hearts and minds. A sunrise after a storm.... Peace to you and the family.##imported-begin##Debbie Caughman Carter##imported-end##
