“ If tears could build a stairway and memories a lane i'd walk right up to heaven and bring you back again.

No farewell words were spoken no time to say goodbye you where gone before I knew it and only god knows why.

My heart aches with sadness and my secret tears will flow for what it meant to love you Dad no one will ever know.

But I know you want me to mourn for you no more to remember all the happy times life still has much in store

Since you'll never be forgotten I pledge to you today a hallowed place within my heart is where you'll always stay.

Lots of love and kisses

Your Daughter Shirley son in law Bill

Granddaughters Lynsey and Louise

“ As a son-in-law to Scotty I don't have one memory which stands out. I have so many memories that fill my memory banks, they make me laugh, smile and remind me of such a good friend.

I always remember his comforting and supportive words when I was diagnosed with a brain tumour and just the thought of getting back across the Atlantic to see him helped with my recovery.

I remember a man who seemed to know everybody in Myrtle Beach, every karaoke bar (including some which looked a bit scary) and someone who (if a task needed doing) could not rest until it was done.

God rest ye ma wee man.xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx.
