“ Dear Marvadean, Karen and Scott, Robert joins me in saying how sad we are that Ernest has passed! Please know that you all have been in our thoughts and prayers throughout his illness and you will continue to be in our prayers. My own personal experience with mothers death was very difficult and still is after all this time, but I Ccan always find peace in knowing that she, like Ernest is with their Lord know and that he has a need for them in heaven. As hardc as it seems now, with the passage of time y'all too will find peace and comfort in this! Knoe that also that even though we were not able to be in Conway today that we are with you in prayer! God's Peace##imported-begin## J. Russell Hughes##imported-end##
