

Ernest Steinnagel

July 2, 2006

Pawleys Island, SC Ernest Steinnagel of Pawleys Island, SC died July 2, 2006 in SC. Born April 4, 1928 in New Brunswick, NJ, he was the son of the late Edward A. and Ethel Pulda Steinnagel. Mr. Steinnagel attended Catonsville High School and received his BS degree in Education from the University of Maryland. He was a World War II, US Marine Corp veteran where he learned diesel mechanics used on military aircraft and later in his careers with B&O Railroad and Cummins Diesels. He started auto mechanics at Reisterstown High School in MD in 1960 then in 1973 he directed a apprenticeship program for Baltimore County Board of Education then moved the program to Catonsville Community College retiring in 1990. Mr. Steinnagel had lived in New Jersey and Maryland before retiring to Pawleys Island in 1991. Surviving are son, Erich Steinnagel of Eldersburg, MD; daughter, Linda Steinnagel of Belen, NM and granddaughter, Kristin Steinnagel. Services will be 11:00 AM, Monday at Goldfinch Funeral Home, Litchfield-Pawleys Chapel.

Tribute Wall

“ It was his best friend "Bear" who first introduced us to our neighbor Ernie Steinnagel who, in turn, gave us a royal welcome to Hagley some eight years ago. Both my son Tim and I grieve the loss of our friend and send our deepest sympathies to his family.##imported-begin##Marcia M. Dunn##imported-end##

July 07, 2006 at 12:00 AM