“ To Jennette, Sonny and and Bobbie Jean, Allen and Ernestine were ALWAYS fun to go see with either granddaddy or grandmother. You always knew Uncle Allen was going to make you laugh and say something that was comical and just before going "over the line." I knew as soon as he made his comment I would turn to Ernestine and wait for her to say "Allen hush up." I nothing but fond memories of the many afternoons I spent in the store drinking a Red Rock or a Chocolate Soldier. You were fortunate to have two great people. Know that you are in my thoughts and prayers.
