“ Dear Wanda, Kristin and families,
I'm saddened by the news of your mother's passing. It was the same date as my Mama's death 3 years ago & I'm still mourning. They were Sunday School classmates & I especially enjoyed her at their monthly lunches. Sending you love and comfort in this difficult time. Glad you have so many memories to cherish. You took such wonderful care of her.

Dearest Wanda and Family, Your mother and I were close friends from our childhood days in Stilly Mill Housing quarters and then were reunited again when I married James Graham and moved to Loris and we attended Loris Meth. Church. She AKWAYS was a beautiful person inside and out. I have missed not seeing or hearing from her these last few years and look forward to our reunion as I know you and all your Family are. GOD Bless and Comfort you in these days of painful and sorrowful loss of her physical presence. In Love Vivian(Anderson) Graham.

Wanda I am so very sorry for the loss of your mother. Believe me I know how hard this is gonna be. I remember taking care of your mom when she and your dad were in the auto accident. I've seen her many times since and she was always a very beautiful lady who loved you and her family very much. Love ❤️ you my friend. My prayers for comfort and strength are for you and your family.
