“ Randall, Ronnie, Linda, Barbara, and Sandra. So sorry to just now read that you all lost your mother. Randall has spoken so highly of her, even though I didn't personally know her, I could tell she was a wonderful mother and a true 'Saint'. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. Maybe she will meet my mother in heaven. They seemed to be so much alike and loved all of us 'mean' children more than anything else in the world. They're both probably up in heaven babysitting all the little children and having a wonderful time at it! God bless all of you and give you peace during these days of grief.
