“ *Aunt Ethel was always one of my favorite Aunts! I always admired her spunkiness, speaking her mind and her huge heart! Two years ago I took a DVD to our Family reunion. It was from 1989. People asked if I would make them a copy which I did. Aunt Ethel wanted 5!!! She got them too! 😊 There is a whole in our family that no one can fill! Enjoy your Heavenly Home! We love you! “ We are so sorry for your loss. I remember "Ma" Grainger coming to the office to visit and she always smiled and said now you take care of Helen for me and if she don't behave you call me. She never had a harsh word to say about anyone and if you needed anything and she found out she did what she could to help. We will miss her greatly.
