“ I am so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as the comfort found in God’s word the bible. In particular the scripture found at Revelation 21:4 which says, “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

Doris, Dean, Dale, and all the family - Thinking of you at this difficult time. Your mom was a very sweet lady, and I'm glad to have known her as a friend and neighbor for over 40 years. I especially treasure the last four years that my grandson and I would see her working in her flowers as we rode the golf cart. We would stop and chat. He (who is four now) loved chatting with her and always had a "story" to tell her or a lot of questions to ask her! She enjoyed taking up time with him. She will be missed. You all will be in my prayers. May good memories and knowing that she's in a better place now bring you comfort. Love, Mary
