“ Jennifer, I don't know if you remember me or not, but I read about your mom today in the newspaper and wanted to just say that I am sorry for your loss. I did not know you had moved to Tennessee. I know Austin must be grown up now. I still have his picture you gave me. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers because I know you loved her so much. “ Jennifer, this time of sadness came too quickly - but what a wonderful & strong inspiration your Nanny was! You and your family are in our prayers. Hopefully you'll remember with a smile, even in your tears, that she is in heaven kicking up gold dust with many loved ones. Take comfort in our Lord and His promise, Deanna Hebrews 10:23, "Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for He who promised is faithful."###imported-begin##David and Deanna Sexton & Sons###imported-end##
