“ I read of your loss and want to express my deepest sympathy. Although, Mr. Evan lived a long life it is still hard when losing a loved one. This is because we have a built-in desire to live and enjoy life with our family and friends forever. In these times it is encouraging to reflect on the promises that God has given us thru his word the Bible concerning the hope of seeing our loved ones again. I hope you find comfort in reading these scriptures. John 5:21,28,29, Acts 24:15 and Revelation 21:3,4. My prayers are with your family.##imported-begin##Karen Cross##imported-end##

“ To all my family and friends. It is with sadness that I write this note. I first new this man as Uncle Dan. He was in the Army Air Force during World War II. I wrote him letters. I was about 5 years old and the letters were long for me. You know? How are you? I am fine. I probable managed all of three complete sentences. Later on, 1958-1960I was stationed in Charleston SC while in the Air Force. I had my old Chevy so would drive up to Myrtle Beach for the weekend. I spent many weekends just hanging around the shop. I always had to admire Pappy for his honesty. He always told people how it was even when it wasn?t what they wanted to hear. If their car was going to be expensive to repair, he told them so. If it sounded bad, but was just a minor item, he told them that also. He was respected wherever he went. He will be missed, but will also be remembered for a long time. “ Dear Phyllis and June -- I am very much with you in spirit today as you say goodbye to your father. He was more like an uncle to me than a family friend. He is a priceless part of my childhood as you both are as well. Much love, Vicki###imported-begin###Victoria Cox Buresch###imported-end##
