Pawleys Island

Evan W. Davis

Evan W. Davis, of Pawleys Island, SC, passed away peacefully on February 20, 2014 at age 86, supported by his wife and daughters.

Evan was born on August 2, 1927 in New York City, and was raised in Portland, Oregon. He was an All-Star football player at Grant High School in Portland, attended the University of Washington, graduated from the University of Oregon and was a US Army veteran. After a move to the east coast, Evan settled in North Haven, CT, with his wife Joan Brown Davis, and his two daughters, Cheryl and Allison. Evan was a stellar husband and father, his "three girls" were his greatest joy. Since 1994, he has resided in Pawleys Island, where he spent many happy hours playing golf, enjoying the beach and a fine bottle of wine, his other passions.

Evan leaves behind his wife, Joan, of Pawleys Island, his daughter Cheryl, of Brunswick, Maine, his daughter, Allison of Wallingford, CT, grandson Evan, of New York City, grandson Gavin and his fianc?? Laurie, also of New York City, a sister, Kay, of Billings, Montana, and a loving niece, Katherine, along with several other family members and many close friends. Evan W. Davis was a warm, loving and happy man, with a generous heart and soul. He loved his family, and was well-loved in return, a fine legacy. Evan's loss will be felt by all who knew and loved him, and he will be missed terribly.

There will be no service in Pawleys Island.

In lieu of flowers, a donation to a charity of your choice would be welcome.

An online guestbook is available at www.goldfinchfuneralhome.com.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as God's word the bible. Why do people we love die? Romans 5:12 says: "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

“ Dear Joan,
I was so saddened to hear of Evan's passing. I remember what a wonderful time we had with both of you last year on the cruise.

Our prayers are with you and your family. If you need anything, when you return to Pawleys Island, please call us. We would be happy to help in anyway.

“ Dear Mrs. Davis (Joan), Cheryl, Allison, Gavin and Evan,
At times like this words cannot adequately express feelings but please know that you all are in my thoughts and prayers. As I think back to our days in North Haven and when spending time on Buell Street, Mr. Davis was always so welcoming with a wonderful smile and gentle soul. Cheryl is like family to me and I wish that I could be there to help at this sad time. You all have so many wonderful memories to cherish. Love to all and our deepest sympathy. From my family to yours, Janet
