“ I remember the first time I met Mrs. Evelyn. I had gone over to the house to see Renee and was met at the door by BIG AL. I walked in to Victor climbing all over Mrs. Evelyn and she, very calmly, asked me where I was from, how I met Renee, would I like something to eat. She always treated me like family. I learned to be more outgoing in that house...I learned to be Italian! I don't think she ever knew that her home was a sanctuary for me at a time I really needed it. Renee, I love ya! I know you will miss her, but one day you will be able to see her again! She'll keep an eye out for you!

“ Aunt Evelyn was one of the younger children of eight. She was a good person with a kind and welcoming heart. Her door was always open with a fresh pot of coffee on and all the time in the world to sit and talk with you. She had a keen sense of humor and loved to dance. She adored her husband and children immensely. She will be missed but she will be rejoicing in heaven. Ephesians 4:32
