“ To All of Our Family, We will be mourning the loss of Aunt Evelyn along with everyone who has loved her throughout her lifetime. I will always remember cutting Michigan Rummy games short to drive her to the Shortline Bus station on Sunday nights. May God get everyone through this difficult time, and at the same time we can all be grateful that she did not suffer for a prolonged period. It is with great regret that due to my new job and length of drive that Tania and I will be unable to attend services for Aunt Evelyn. All of you are in our prayers. May Aunt Evelyn Rest in Peace. All Our Love, Neal And Tania Gruttemeyer##imported-begin##Neal and Tania Gruttemeyer##imported-end##
