

Evelyn J. Zemkin

January 21, 1936 - January 31, 2022

Conway... Evelyn J. Zemkin, age 86, of Conway, SC formerly of Davenport, NY went to join her love of her life, Robert L. Zemkin on January 31, 2022 at home.

She was born January 21, 1936 in McDonough, NY. She is survived by her son, Robert whom she resided with and was cared for with love. Evelyn attended Afton School and graduated from SUNY Oneonta State in 1958 with a Master's Degree in education, married Robert L. Zemkin in 1958, and began her teaching career at Stamford Central School. Over the years, she taught 1st and 2nd grade until her retirement. Robert L. Zemkin died in 2014 and her son Robert took care of her and they traveled in their camper. She loved the beach, hunting seashells, sitting on the porch at their home in Conway watching the hummingbirds, and working in their flower gardens. She and her son moved to Conway, SC four years ago where her son still resides.

She is survived by her son Robert and several nieces and a brother. She leaves many very good friends at Charlotte Valley Presbyterian Church along with her best friend Nan Banker as well as Alice Fiske Coon and Patsy Kirk.

There will be no service at her request. Donations may be made in her name to the Charlotte Valley Presbyterian Church, 15673 State Hwy 23, Davenport NY 13750.

“ Robert, you know your parents and you are a special part of my family. Please accept my most sincere condolences from everyone in the Van Gulp clan. I'll never forget all that your Mom - and Dad did for us. Take solace in their memories and that they are now in each other's arms and probably talking with my parents too. Bless you for what you did for your Mom in her last days here on Planet Earth.
