*Dearest Aunt Fay,
I will never forget all the love, encouragement and support you and Uncle Frank provided to me growing up. I recall fondly the visits in your home, crazy car rides around Brooklyn, and of course, the many delicious meals we shared. Your warm, lovely house was in many ways a second home.
May you rest in eternal peace.
With love,
Anita*

“ Some of the fondest memories I have as a child were when we spent the holidays in Brooklyn at Aunt Fay's house. All of the cousins together, the wonderful food, and of course the magical spinning christmas tree. I can hear in my head the voices of all my aunts and uncles; I close my eyes and see everyone spread at the big table while we, the younger cousins, sat at the "kids table". Family has spread on the winds, but these roots remain. I hope all of the Pugliese children and their loved ones, as well as my Mom and Aunts can take comfort in these memories and each other.

“ I have many wonderful memories with your mother, it has been an honor and my pleasure to spend my days with her. A fun memory, during "LeSpa" while painting her nails your mom decided I (and all the other ladies getting their nails painted) should learn Italian. She spent an hour teaching us, and laughing at how bad we were at trying our hand at Italian. It was a very entertaining hour. Most of all I adored being her "Norma", the original. I loved when she would tell me she "knows my name is Tammy, but Norma is just easier to remember". Eventually, we all became Norma. About a month ago she smiled at me during Happy Hour and said "you know I love you Norma, I know that's not your name, now I call them all Norma...it's just easier."

I could go on with many funny stories, and my good memories of my friend. But I think I should simply thank you for sharing your mother with us. Of the three plus years I have been at NHC, she has been the bright spot of every day I have been there. I will miss her terribly, as she put a smile on my face everyday.

All my Love and Prayers,
Tammy Davidyock
