

Felix Dominic Esposito

August 4, 1944 - May 17, 2017

Felix Dominic Esposito, age 72, passed away Wednesday, May 17, 2017 at his residence.

Mr. Esposito was born in Danbury, Connecticut, a son of the late Salvatore Esposito and Louise Esposito. In addition to his parents; he was also preceded in death by his son-in-law, Eric A. Murphy.

He was a US Army veteran that proudly served his country during the Vietnam War. Mr. Esposito was employed as an equipment operator and truck driver for many years.

Mr. Esposito was formerly of Morris, CT and moved to Loris, SC following his retirement. He was an avid outdoorsman that especially enjoyed hunting and fishing. Mr. Esposito lived life to the fullest and enjoyed being a practical joker. He prided himself on being available for others and his ability to never meet a stranger. Mr. Esposito would want it to be known that, "I Did It My Way!"

Survivors include his devoted wife of 48 years, Cheryle M. Esposito; his two loving daughters, Rachel Murphy of Torrington, CT, Tracey Paquin and husband, Dennis, of Loris, SC; his five grandchildren, Jordan, Logan, Dylan, Amber, Dalton; and his sister, Joan Guertin and her husband, Gil, of Sandy Hook, CT.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 12:00 PM, Friday, May 26, 2017 at

Our Lady Star of the Sea Catholic Church with Father D. Anthony Droze officiating. Military honors will follow.

Memorial donation may be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105.

“ Felix and I grew up together in the area of Danbury CT called Pocono Road close to the Bethel Town line. He was always full of life, loved cars and nothing seemed to bother him. He had a car accident once on Sand Pit Rd.in which he was injured He would proudly show a photo of his damaged car and the scared tree. Sadly Felix is gone, but the tree is still there. God rest his soul. Dave Johnson.
