

Fern LoCascio

September 7, 1940 - June 21, 2017

Fern LoCascio, of Pawleys Island, died at age 76 on Wednesday, June 21, 2017. Fern lived life on her terms and those around her knew exactly how she felt at all times. A confident, strong woman, Fern was at her happiest wherever a cacophony of music, stories, and laughter could be found. She favored poker over bridge, baseball over movies, and shag over the waltz. She enjoyed scotch and wine equally and those lucky enough to share them with her have lifelong memories to show for it.

Preceded in death by her parents and her husband of 33 years Frank, She is survived by her sons Keith and Gregg, the "daughters" they brought to the party, Suzan LoCascio and Amy Dixon, five LoCascio grandchildren that made her proud: Alexander, Noah, Sophia, Margaret, and Vivian, as well as her siblings John Vitale, Carolyn Molloy (John), and William Vitale (Barbara) and many wonderful nieces and nephews.

A funeral mass will be held on Saturday, June 24th at 2pm at Precious Blood of Christ Catholic Church of Pawleys Island.

In lieu of flowers, donations in her memory to a charity close to her heart, the Lowcountry Food Bank (www.lowcountryfoodbank.org), would be greatly appreciated.
