“ Granny i sure miss u and love u so much ! I spent alot of time with u and have wonderful memories of u ! I can remember u teaching me how to shell butter beans and taught me how to cook and all the nights i spent with u and couldn't wait til the next morning to eat your homeade pancakes ! You were the best granny any granddaughter could ask for so compassionate and the sweetest ever ! I love u granny

Hello Martin Family

Betty and I share some wonderful memories of time spent with Aunt Sue over the years. She always seemed to be in great and loving spirit which spilt over onto anyone near. She freely shared long years past family experiences and kinship with us.

She and Uncle Jessie (my mom's older brother) were a very great couple, one that everyone could be proud of.

We sorely miss Aunt Sue already because she is irreplaceable to most of us.

We extend our heartfelt sympathy to all her extended family and friends. May we all cherish her fond memories forever.

Rest in peace Aunt Sue and God bless everyone who knew her.
