“ I would like to express my sympathy to the family. I hope you are finding comfort in the time you spent with your dear loved one. Please find comfort in the hope expressed in the Bible at Revelation 21:3,4 where it tells us that mourning, pain, and death will be things of the past. I hope you find comfort in this hope. Feel free to email me to comment or if you have questions. Again, please accept my condolences.##imported-begin##Margaret##imported-end##

“ Winnie, I made a mistake in the year I entered my mother, Mildred Haley Lewis next door to your mother. It was July 8, 2005. She will be there for 2 years on July 8, 2007. I will try to correct this in my condolence. Wishing you the best,##imported-begin##Eleanor Haley Selph##imported-end##

“ Dear Winnie and family: It was such a pleasure to meet Florence the very first day that I entered my mother, Mildred Haley Lewis, next door to Florence on July 8, 2006. When I visited mother, which was often, I would always chat with Florence. She was a delight to know. We laughed, talked, and she always reminded me that she would peek in on my mother every morning to see if she was doing ok. Florence always wanted me to take her and mother shopping. I wish that could have been possible?but due to their illness it was not achievable. Winnie, your mother will always remain in my heart as a dear person. May God richly bless you and your family and may you always have fond memories of your mother. I loved your mother as well as all of the other sweet ladies and gents at Myrtle Beach Estates. “ Dear Winnie, Barry and Frank, \tYou are in my thoughts and prayers at this most difficult time. I understand and know what you have been through and are going through, as it is and will be an emotional rollercoaster. When my mother passed away in January a friend passed along this passage: "Now all that I know is hazy and blurred, but one day I will see everything clearly, just as clearly as God sees into my heart right now". I Corinthians 13:12. How true for Florence. God Bless You. Robin Egerter##imported-begin##Robin Egerter##imported-end##
