“ Dear Jodi, Bobby and Andy, I can still remember meeting grandma 10 years ago. It was love at first sight. We knew immediately it would be an everlasting friendship. My visits with her were precious and always hold near to my heart. I will miss our times together especially all the laughs. She was a special lady and filled a tremendous void in my heart. She truly was my adopted grandma. I will miss her terribly, but I find comfort in knowing she is resting peacefully.
My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Jody, Bobby, and Andrew,
Surely your marvelous mother is in God's hands. She will continue to love and care for you from heaven just as she did her on earth. I think she is also happy to be united with your dad, Andy. They were both good friends and delightful people to me and many others. Your mom will be missed, but I rejoice in her release from all the recent illnesses.
My prayers and sympathy to each of you.
