“ *I would like to express my condolences to the family and friends of Ms. Stubbs. I am sincerely sorry for the loss of your loved one. I know how difficult a time like this can be for you. However, God's Word the Bible can be a resourceful provision, especially when in need of comfort. I scripture that I find to be helpful is found at Isaiah 25:8. Here, God promises to swallow up death and wipe the tears from the faces of his people. How comforting it is to know this! If you are interested in knowing more about God's purposes for mankind,

“ I've heard "Mom Flo" for years from fellow AMMO troops. Flo was loved by many but mostly by Brother AJ and our Lord. AJ and family, I only ask that God give you peace in the coming days. God bless you and all who loved her.

“ I have no memories of Flo except the times that AJ spoke of her when we were in Oman and I could tell how much he loved and admired her and missed her when he wasn't with her - I knew by the way he spoke about Flo that she was a wonderful woman - Flo will be greatly missed but the memories will last forever - you are at rest and peace now Flo xo

Flo: The memories we have of you growing up will always be in our hearts forever. You shared so much with your family and no one can take that away. You were a fighter till the end when God took you by the hand and away from all the pain you had to go through. You will never be forgotten. Prayers and thoughts go out to your family and dear friends.
