

Forrest Murray Davidson Jr

March 11, 1953 - December 15, 2023

Forrest Murray Davidson, Jr. died December 15, 2023 at his home in Pawley's Island, SC at the age of 70.

He was born on March 11, 1953 in Burlington, NC, the middle child of the late Forrest Murray Davidson and Mary Davis Davidson. Forrest attended Woodward Academy in Atlanta, GA followed by NC State University, in Raleigh, NC. Forrest is survived by his two sons: Forrest Murray Davidson, III, "Tripp" and his partner, Quynh Ho, of Portland, OR; and Paul Camp Marks Davidson and his wife, Sabrina of Pawleys Island, SC, and their son P.J. He is also survived by two sisters: Karen Davidson of Siler City, NC and Happy Davidson and her husband, Michael Taub, of Carmel, NY. Forrest was retired as co-owner of Carolina Pavers and Wall Systems in Pawleys Island. He was a man of many talents, including artist, sculptor, photographer, builder, and wood worker. He was an avid marksman and world class skeet shooter, having won several tournaments across the Southeast. He was a fan of soccer and coached both his sons in their youth and was co-owner of the professional team the Myrtle Beach Boyz while they lasted. He loved the mountains and enjoyed snow skiing. He loved travel, and recently enjoyed traveling to Scotland and England with his son, Tripp, to visit his ancestral roots. He enjoyed spending time with his sons and lately watching his grandson play soccer and piano as well.

A celebration of life will be held on April 27, 2024 in Pawley's Island, SC.
