“ I loved your mom and dad; I will miss them but my daughter reminded me that Fran and Sam were now together in heaven. I believe that and it brings me some comfort. I played bridge with them for around 25 years, but shared many other things with them including flowers, family stories, transporting them, eating with them, laughter and many good times. Please know that family was very important to them and your family always was very loving with your parents and grand children. I send you Peace to soothe you, Grace to hold you, and Love to comfort you. Kaye Hardister
