“ We kids and our parents so enjoyed Ralph and Frances in Sedan. Together we cranked many tubs of ice cream (always with the eggs completely cooked in a custard beforehand) on hot summer evenings, and Frances gave me piano lessons. Dad especially enjoyed and admired Ralph, I think. I lost track of them when they moved to SC. Today I discovered that they have passed on. I send my fond remembrances to Steve, plus thanks for his remarkable tolerance back then, in allowing us to devour his wonderful collection of Scrooge McDuck comics.

“ I am sorry for the family's loss. Please take comfort in the promise of the resurrection mentioned in the Bible at John 6:40.
