

Frances Hart

November 5, 1910 - March 21, 2014

Conway...Frances Thomason Anderson Hart, age 103, widow of Marion Sims Hart died Friday, March 21, 2014 at her home.

Born in Greenwood County, SC on November 5, 1910, she was known as Frank or Frankie to family and friends. She was the daughter of the late Thomas Carson Anderson and Nannie Thomason Anderson of Greenwood County, SC. Mrs. Hart graduated from Ninety Six High School and Lander College. She then began her twenty-seven years as a teacher in the elementary school system of the state. Her marriage brought her to Conway, SC, where she became a homemaker, teacher and a faithful member of the First United Methodist Sunday School and Church, where she was a member for nearly 70 years. Her home was always open to family and friends. Special among those were the members of her Church Circle, her Garden Club and the Wednesday Bridge Club. Death took her twin sister, Mary Motte Herbert, in 2009 at age 98 and her older sister Rebecca Callcott in 2014 at age 104. She was also predeceased by brothers, Judge J. Perrin Anderson and Thomas Carson Anderson, Jr.

She is survived by a daughter, Sims Hart Gasque (Pratt) of Conway and a son Robert Lide Hart (Jane) of Charleston, SC; three grandchildren, James Aldrich Wyman Rembert, Jr., Charles Marion Hart and Sarah Frances Hart Black (Alan); one sister, Nancy Self of Columbia, SC and numerous nieces and nephews whose lives added joy and special meaning to her life.

A private graveside service will be held in Darlington, SC. No visitation is planned.

Memorials may be sent to First United Methodist Church, 1001 Fifth Ave.,
Conway, SC 29526 or to the charity of one's choice.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as God's word the bible. Why do people we love die? Romans 5:12 says: "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

“ In October Lori and I went to Conway for a visit with and Frank and to pick up a china cabinet she gave us. After retrieving the cabinet from storage we took it back to the house so she could see it once more. When she came outside she stood on her tiptoes and peered into the bed of the truck. She ran her hands across the cabinet and said she was "remembering". She commented on our truck. "GMC", she said. She then proceeded to kick one of the tires and said they were "substantial". I will forever remember her standing in the driveway waving good bye! A life well lived.

“ About 6 months ago, Aunt Frank chose to ride with me in my Corvette (she got in and out easier than I). She seemed to thoroughly enjoy it commenting that it had a "nice little bounce to it!" I will miss her!

Tom LaRoche

I have always been proud to be my Aunt Frank's namesake (my Mom was her twin), and we had a special bond. I loved her and will miss her sweet presence in my life.
